

SIXTEEN YEARS TO WRITE HIS THREE HOUR VISION

Wellsville Man Recounts in Book Experiences of "Journey Through Heaven and Hell"—Sees
World's Creation and Foresees Eternity.

Wellsville, O., March 30.—John Griffin is completing a remarkable book upon which he has labored 16 years. "Journey Through Heaven and Hell," such as came to Griffin while he was in a semi-wakeful condition, are described.

Griffin asserts that he saw the representation of the beginning of the world, its progress and eventually the end. At the beginning he saw two persons groping about in darkness.

Then light began to break. Men built cities and there was progress in all lines. After a little while the world again began to darken, vegetation to decay and the races fought among themselves for survival until the last soul was gone. Then came the vision of afterworlds and eternity. Smith is a miner. He has penned 103,000 words concerning his vision which he viewed within three hours 16 years ago.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, March 30.—At no previous time of the current crop year was the wheat of this country as squarey on an export basis as it was today. Considerable business of that kind was reported done at New York in both hard winter and Duluth spring wheat. The effect of that state of affairs on the speculative futures was invigorating and at the close another half cent was added to the main value. Corn was firm but the advance was only 1-8 cent; oats gained 1-8-1-4. Provisions had a material reaction and at the close pork was from 15 cents to 20 cents lower and lard and ribs each 12 1-2 cents down.
